Symbius Medical Sponsors Bodybuilder Kyle Witherspoon at National Championship Competitions

PHOENIX, AZ July 22, 2011 ó Symbius Medical a leading provider in home medical supplies to customers nationwide sponsors light heavyweight bodybuilder and personal trainer Kyle Witherspoon at upcoming national championship competitions.

Kyle Witherspoon is a NPC bodybuilder who will be competing in the light heavyweight division at the 32nd Annual NPC Bodybuilding Championships in Los Angeles, CA, July 23 at the Veteranø Memorial Auditorium. Kyle placed first in the light heavyweight class in 2009 and will also be participating in the 2011 NPC USA Bodybuilding Championship in Las Vegas being held at the end of July.

President of Symbius Medical, Dwight Knox, met Kyle while he was training at a local gym and learned Kyle was having some sleep disorders. Dwight recommended a sleep study at a local sleep lab to determine if a CPAP device was necessary. A continuous positive airway pressure or CPAP device is a method of respiratory ventilation used primarily in the treatment of sleep apnea. Following the sleep study, Kyle was diagnosed with sleep apnea and became a client of Symbius Medical and is now using a S9 Autoset CPAP machine from Resmed. Kyle has found that the device has greatly improved sleep and daily performance as an athlete. øWe are very excited to sponsor Kyle at his upcoming championships and wish him all the success these elite programs have to offer,ø said Dwight Knox, President. øKyle has trained extremely hard this year and his passion and dedicated to the sport is inspirational.ø

øI am honored to have Symbius Medical as one of my sponsors at these championship events,ø said Kyle Witherspoon. øI have trained very hard this year and with the support of my family and local sponsorships, I hope to win this yearø competitions in my weight class division.ø

Kyle started training in 2004 when he met local bodybuilding pro, Rusty Jeffers, at a local gym and a year later under Rustyø guidance, Kyle was competing professionally. He has never looked back. Kyle has placed in multiple bodybuilding competitions throughout his career and has a beautiful wife and daughter who live in Arizona.
